WHAT ARE MHCC GROUPS?

MHCC Groups are small groups of people who meet regularly to share a common interest, discussion topic, or curriculum.

Mount Helena Community Church is committed to connecting people – both to Jesus and to a community around them. These connections are at the heart of our vision to build community and live the mission. This vision is carried out in our daily lives and in our gatherings, large and small. Whether a group involves fun activities, serious study, or serving together, each is meant to connect us at MHCC. Understanding the commitment levels can help you find groups that are a good fit for you.

Each of the following groups are categorized into one of the following levels, based on time commitment and/or intensity of curriculum:

MINIMAL COMMITMENT

LEVEL 1 groups are casual and light-hearted gatherings designed to get to know people in our community. Members can come and go, and do not necessarily need to RSVP. These groups are based around an activity or shared interest, and there is usually no curriculum or study involved.

MODERATE
COMMITMENT

LEVEL 2 groups require a little bit more of you. Members may need to RSVP if the group involves childcare, a meal, or a group activity to coordinate. These groups are based around an interest, activity, or curriculum but can be jumped into at any time. If they miss a week or two, members won't feel as though they've "fallen behind."

HIGH COMMITMENT

LEVEL 3 groups will be pursuing a common interest, or going through a book or curriculum on a specific schedule. Topics of study and activities may be more detailed or challenging than in a level 2 group. Members understand that they need to attend as many of the group gatherings as possible, and should communicate absences to the leader. Members who do not do the reading, or who miss several meetings or activities will fall behind.

MINISTRY TEAMS

LEVEL 4 groups are the ministry teams at MHCC. We believe one of the best ways to get to know people is to serve alongside them. Our teams of volunteers are what make our ministries possible and there is always room for another helping hand! Once you sign up, you will be contacted by a team leader regarding the application, training, and scheduling processes. Feel free to contact a leader before signing up if you have questions about their ministry. If you are already on a team listed, you do not need to sign up again.

WHAT IS THE SCHEDULE?

Each group has its own time, start date, frequency, and duration.

You can find start dates and meeting times in each group description. Groups meet regularly but may take time off due to holidays or other conflicts. Please contact the group leader if you have further questions about when their group meets.

Most Bible reading plans hit a wall at Leviticus – all that blood and ritual can feel like ancient rules that leave us confused. But what if we’ve been reading it wrong? Written by a professional butcher, this engaging study tackles our biggest assumptions about Old Testament sacrifice. It wasn’t about wrath or death penalties – it was about divine hospitality, spiritual cleansing, and sharing a meal with God. In this study, we’ll discover how the Bible’s “toughest book” points to a God who longs to live among and heal humanity.
